H. CLARIFYING INFORMATION ABOUT INCORRECTLY REPORTED 2021 PARENT ADDITIONAL FINANCIAL INFORMATION ON 2023-2024 FAFSA

IMPORTANT! If you entered amount(s) for parent additional financial information (question 88 on the 2023-2024 FAFSA) that should not have been reported there, please thoroughly explain here why you reported it at the time, and why it was a mistake.

Example 1: I reported $4200 child support paid on the student's 2023-2024 FAFSA, but the correct amount was $0. I made a mistake and used the amount from 2020, not 2021. Child support payments to my son's mother ended in 2020 when my son turned 18.

Example 2: I reported $8600 in combat pay on the student's 2023-2024 FAFSA, but that amount should have been $0. The combat pay was not taxable, and was not included in the Adjusted Gross Income on my 2021 federal tax return.

Please read the instructions above before you complete this section. Explanation of parent additional financial information error(s) made related to question 88 on the 2023-2024 FAFSA:

I. ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTATION

2021 income and tax return documentation is generally also required along with this form. The most common documentation requested is 1) a copy of all of your parents' 2021 W2s (or 2021 IRS Wage & Income transcript(s)), plus 2) a copy of your parents' 2021 IRS tax return transcript(s) or signed tax return(s) (IRS 1040, including Schedules 1, 2, and 3, if filed). If requested, tax return documents are required, even if the parent IRS Data Retrieval Tool was utilized on the 2023-2024 FAFSA. Be sure to regularly check your To Do List in your Student Center. Also, feel free to contact us if you have any questions about this form or necessary documentation. [PLEASE NOTE: This form is most often used with tax filers, not non-tax filers. If this form was assigned to your parent(s), and your parent(s) did not file a 2021 tax return, please obtain both a 2021 IRS non-filing status letter for each non-filing parent, and a 2021 IRS Wage & Income transcript for each non-filing parent, and provide our office with copies.] For some guidance about obtaining the various IRS transcripts, refer to: <https://www.swic.edu/students/services/financial-aid/irs-requests/>
