2021 Untaxed Income—Parent

Your 2023-2024 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law says that before awarding Federal Student Aid, SWIC is required to compare your FAFSA with the information on this form and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You must complete and sign this form, attach any required documents, and submit the form and other required documents to the Financial Aid Office at SWIC. If you have questions about verification, contact our office as soon as possible so that your financial aid will not be delayed.

Read the instructions in your To-Do List Item prior to completing this form. Also contact our office for specific guidance related to your file. You may not need to complete every section. Questions refer to the parent(s) whose information is required on the 2023-2024 FAFSA.

G. CLARIFYING INFORMATION ABOUT INCORRECTLY REPORTED 2021 PARENT UNTAXED INCOME INFORMATION ON THE 2023-2024 FAFSA

IMPORTANT! If you entered amounts(s) for parent untaxed income on the 2023-2024 FAFSA that should not have been reported there, please thoroughly explain here why you reported it at the time, and why it was a mistake.
(Example 1: I reported $4200 child support received on my 2023-2024 FAFSA, but the correct amount was $0. I made a mistake and used the amount from 2020, not 2021. Child support receipt ended in 2020 when my son turned 18.
Example 2: I reported $8600 in other untaxed income on my 2023-2024 FAFSA, but that amount should have been $0. The $8600 was Social Security benefits I received in 2021. Social Security benefit amounts are not supposed to be reported on the FAFSA, but I reported it in error.)

Please read the instructions above before you complete this section. Explanation of parent untaxed income error(s) made:
