Mission Statement

The Foreign Language program at Southwestern Illinois College encourages and supports students in their pursuit of foreign language proficiency and cross-cultural competency. The curriculum emphasizes the development and consolidation of listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills in modern foreign languages. The sequence of courses also exposes students to global sociocultural practices and perspectives while increasing competency in cross-cultural communication and understanding through connections with other disciplines. The Foreign Language program strives for excellence in teaching and implements appropriate assessment techniques to monitor and maximize student learning and progress.
