Mission Statement

The Communication Arts Discipline of Southwestern Illinois College fosters creative inquiry and expression in preparation for continued life-long learning. Using an interdisciplinary approach, we foster a collaborative foundation of knowledge and skills. In doing so we prepare our students for continued education and participation in dynamic local and world cultures. The students' academic growth is reflected through the processes of practice, critical thought, and personalized application. The Fine and Performing Arts Department consists of the connected disciplines of Theatre, Mass Communication, Communication.
