- a) The budgets provided above are estimates based on 15 credit hours per semester, 30 total credit hours for the Fall and Spring semester. Budgets are reduced if enrollment is part-time or less than half-time. Actual tuition and fee costs are calculated on student's enrolled credit hours each semester.
- b) Direct costs incurred through Southwestern Illinois College include tuition, fees, and select books and supplies*.
- c) Books, supplies, and course fees will vary based on the specific courses that students are taking. Students should consult the Class Schedule and billing statements found in eSTORM for specific costs.
- d) Students with aviation fees that exceed the standard fee amount are eligible for a budget increase.
- e) The student's cost of attendance budget is the maximum financial aid assistance a student can receive. Financial aid includes grants, loans, work-study, scholarships, and tuition waivers. Students are notified of their financial aid eligibility through their SWIC student e-mail.
